It is a curious fact that Alderman Kane. who was the only one of the nineteen Aldermen of the 1886 Beard who voted against the franchise, was one of the most prominent of the "Big Four," the others being Aldermen McGarry, Coffey and McCarty, the latter now a State Senator, who were supposed to con-trol legislation in that body when the Union franchise w. s granted.

He explains his vote in the negative by saying that he believed at the time that the Kings County " L" road had rights to some of the streets named in the Union franchise. ings to some innocent third party, and thus scape further inquiry. Indeed, the Putnam people say he has already declared that the stock which he now holds was legally transferred to him by a gentleman now dead, and that this person was the late Henry J. All this serves to further complicate matters, and those who are outside and merely onlookers are beginning to realize how extremely difficult it is going to be for the friends of President Putnam to substantiate ir charges of bribery and corruption, even if they should be perfectly true. There has been plenty of auspicion ever since the franchise was granted, but suspicion falls very

This, it is said, is one of the main reasons for the present attempt to have Mr. Barrett's stock cancelled, for if Mr. Putoain remains in control or the "L" road he gives his assurance that its stock will never be pledged to pay the cost of constructing the new bridge.

MR. URIMANN'S STATEMENT.

Upon this point Mr. Uhlmann said to-day:
"There is no truth whateker in the report. We have already $7,000,000 ready to be put into the bridge construction, enough to run us for three years at least. The bridge will cost so many millions that it is childish to fit the Brooklyn L road. This will not be a dividend-paying road for five years yet, in all probability."

Commute His Sentence.

The wife of James E. Minnaugh, who is under sentence to die by electricity at Sing Sing during the week beginning next Monday, is making a determined effort to save him from the fatal chair. Minnaugh shot and killed Edward Moran in Joseph Dowling's saloon, at Second avenue and Forty-fourth street, on the morning of Dec. 22, 1890. They had been great friends, slighting remark Moran made about Minnaugh's wife.

Minnaugh was convicted of murder in the first degree on June 9, 1891. The jury was out only eleven minutes. In sentencing him to death during the week of July 27 last, liccorder Smyth said that he "never before had knowledge of so clear a case of deliberate, premeditated and intentional killing."

Lawyer Joseph F. Moss of Howe & Hummel's office, served a notice of appeal, and Minnaugh was kept in the Tombs until last month, when, the Court of Appeals having decided against him, Recorder smyth again fixed the week of death, and Minnaugh was taken to Sing Sing.

nxed the week of death, and Minnaugh was taken to Sing Sing.

Mrs. Minnaugh has since been engaged in securing signatures to a petition for a commutation of sentence, and this, with affidavita that Minnaugh was drunk when he committed the crime, and had been for some time previously, will be presented to Gov. Flower by Lawyer Moss on Friday.

If the Governor retuses to interfere Minnaugh will probably be killed hext Monday.
